Samar pols sign peace pact for safe elections

JOEY A. GABIETA

TACLOBAN CITY- Major candidates from Samar who are running in the May 9 elections signed a peace covenant with the hope that the balloting in the province will be peaceful and orderly.

The signing of the peace covenant, held last March 29 at the 8th Infantry Division headquarters at Camp Maulong, Catbalogan City, was witnessed by top officials of the Commission on Elections (Comelec), Philippine National Police (PNP), and the Philippine Army (PA).

The candidates who signed the peace agreement were Governor Michael Reynolds Tan who is running for Samar's second congressional district; Rep. Sharee Ann Tan, who is seeking the gubernatorial post against Gemma Zosa; and Rep. Edgar Mary Sarmiento of Samar's first congressional district whose post is being challenged by Stephen James Tan.

Also present were those seeking for the posts of the vice governor and provincial board members.

The covenant, calls, among others, for the candidates to shun any activities that will thwart the will of the electorate like the use of violence and vote-buying.

Comelec Commissioner George Erwin Garcia said that he was glad that the candidates, both from the opposing sides, agreed to sign the covenant as he vowed that the poll body

Bolted at the Biliran provincial jail Escapee rearrested in Quezon City

TACLOBAN CITY- After almost four months of hiding, a detainee of a provincial jail in Biliran was rearrested in Quezon City on Thursday (March 31).

Rearrested was Carmelito Abia, 22, who escaped at the prison facility last year, at Barangay Sta. Lucia, Quezon City at around 12:15 pm, a report from the regional headquarters of the Philippine National Police (PNP) based in Palo, Leyte, said.

Abia, who is facing a rape charge, was arrested by personnel of the Biliran provincial police at the said place where he went into hiding and lived with his common-law wife.

The prisoner, who is originally from Kawayan, Biliran, was able to escape by climbing the wall at the Biliran Provincial Jail at 12:30 midnight last December 6, 2021.

His whereabouts was located through intelligence information received by the Biliran police.

He is currently detained at the Quezon City Police District for documentation and proper disposition before he will be returned back to the Biliran prison facility.

NSSDEO, Brgy. Burabud, Laoang, Northern Samar-The Department of Public Works and Highways Northern Samar Second District Engineering Office (DPWH-NSSDEO), on July 28, 2021 started the project, Rehabilitation/Reconstruction of National Roads with Slips, Slope Collapse and Landslide. It is located along Pangpang-Palapag-Mapanas-Gamay-Lapinig Road specifically at Sitio Sumalidsid Brgy. Nipa Palapag, this province.

Engr. Filoteo T. Delorino, Project Engineer and contractor Junell Paul D. Alcera of JUPA Construction will work together to complete the project on May 23, 2022.

With a current actual accomplishment of 69.23%, JUPA Construction assures that the project will be completed on time. This slope protection project of DPWH-NSSDEO will be very beneficial to the commuters in the Pacific Towns as their roads will now be protected and safe from slips, slope collapse, and landslide which is common in the area, particularly during rainy seasons.

The PAMAGALA Road is a 71.5 kilometer-long national arterial road that connects the towns of Palapag, Mapanas, Gamay, and Lapinig, all of the Northern Samar and directly links the province with Eastern Samar thru San Policarpo-Arteche-Lapinig Boundary Road.

2 Senate bets pin polls victory to Robredo

TACLOBAN CITY- Two candidates for the Senate who are not faring well in various poll surveys remain confident of winning.

Ifugao Rep. Teodoro Baguilat and labor lawyer Jose Sonny Matula said that they are pinning their poll victories on what they claim as the 'rising popularity' of their presidential bet, Vice Pres. Leni Robredo, who is a distant second to surveys frontrunner, former senator Ferdinand 'Bongbong' Marcos, Jr.

The camp of Robredo was in the region last week to campaign for the May 9 elections.

Robredo barnstorms Eastern Visayas; vows to bring programs and projects to the region

CATARMAN, Northern Samar – Vice President Leni Robredo, who running for President, barnstormed the region which has more than 3.1 million registered voters, last week holding major rallies.

In this town, close to 73,000 people, as estimated by the organizer and police, attended her rally held at the UEP Grandstand.

In her talks, Robredo promised Northern Samareños that she will work for the complete electrification of all areas in the province if she gets elected as President of the country.

Comparing the province as having the same plight with her hometown in Bicol region which is frequented by typhoons, thus having frequent brown-outs, Robredo said she will also ensure a lower power rate for Northern Samar.

Another problem that she vowed to resolve is the absence of internet signals in many areas in the province. She said she observed the situation while they travelling by land from Catbalogan to Catarman. Robredo said she will ensure that all areas in Northern Samar will have internet connections.

She also promised more infrastructure projects for Northern Samar - the construction of more roads networks and the completion of the circumferential road from Las Navas in Northern Samar to Matuguinao (Samar) and Jipa-pad in the Eastern Samar that will connect the Samar Island.

Among those present during his rally were Governor Edwin Ongchuan and Rep. Paul Daza.

Robredo also visited the cities of Calbayog and Catbalogan, both in Samar; Ormoc in Leyte; Maasin in Southern Leyte; and Naval, Biliran.

In her rally in Palo, Leyte, held at the Government Center, Robredo met her boisterous supporters of around 6,000 people, who were mostly young, admitted that it was difficult to conduct a sortie in the province as it is acknowledged to be a bailiwick of her closest rival, former senator Ferdinand 'Bongbong' Marcos.

Still, Robredo said that voters should cast their votes not based on where the candidates come from but should be based on their character and capabilities.

Robredo also brought her sorties in Borongan City where is being supported by Gov. Ben Evardone and Rep. Ma. Fe Abunda.

In her Borongan visit, Robredo signed a covenant with local officials that she will deliver her promises to address the problem on poverty of the province.

Robredo along with local government officials in the province in Eastern Samar signed the covenant before the proclamation rally held at the Baybay Boulevard.

Twenty of the 23 mayors in the province were present during the covenant signing.

More than 54,000 individuals attended the proclamation rally in Eastern Samar based on data pro-

LDS Charities donates vaccine carriers, cards to Region 8

TACLOBAN CITY – Latter-day Saint Charities (LDSC), the humanitarian arm of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints has donated on Tuesday (March 29) vaccine storage boxes and cards to boost the routine immunization program of the Department of Health (DOH) in Eastern Visayas region.

LDSC handed over five units of biothermal packaging boxes and 50,000 pieces of vaccination cards to support the DOH regional office immunization activities.

DOH Eastern Visayas assistant regional director Rodolfo Antonio Alborno thanked the organization for its support to the National Immunization Program (NIP) this year.

The DOH is eyeing to administer vaccines this year to 219,710 children in the provinces of Leyte, Biliran, Southern Leyte, Samar, Eastern Samar, and Northern Samar.

“We need to strengthen our linkages and partnerships with stakeholders such as the Latter-day Saints Charities. Sharing your resources in support to our NIP will contribute to the eventual realization of our goal for a healthy Filipino child,” Alborno said during the turnover at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Tacloban Stake (diocese) Center here.

LDSC manager Norman Dolorfino said that for this year alone, the organization is setting aside PHP10 million to support the government’s immunization program in the Philippines.

“The DOH has chosen to allocate these funds primarily for 68 sets cold storage vaccine transport boxes and 670,000 vaccine cards to track vaccines for families. Deliveries will be facilitated in 17 DOH regional offices,” Dolorfino added.

Jhumer Operio, the Church’s Tacloban Stake (diocese) president said they are always open for partnership with the health department to curb vaccine-preventable diseases such as polio, measles, tetanus, diphtheria, pertussis,

408 cops sent to various police stations to ensure peaceful elections in EV

TACLOBAN CITY- At least 408 police personnel were deployed to police stations across Eastern Visayas on Wednesday (March 30) for polls duties to ensure the conduct of elections in the region will be peaceful and orderly.

This latest deployment of police personnel is on top of the 479 police who were earlier assigned in the province of Samar which has a history of election-related violence.

The send-off of this ‘peace-keeping mission’ was headed by B/Gen. Bernard Banac, the regional police director.

“As the elections become nearer, we are doubling our efforts to ensure the safety and security of the communities and the voting public. Expect that more uniformed men and women can be seen in all areas doing their task at hand,” he said.

Robbery incident in a business establishment caught in a CCTV

ORMOC CITY – A robbery incident that took place inside a business establishment in Naval, Biliran last March 26, a Saturday, was recorded in a close circuit television (CCTV) cameras.

Based on the recording, the two bonnet-wearing suspects tried to force open the vaults of the DES Marketing, located in Barangay P.I. Garcia in the said town, using a hacksaw and metal bars but failed to do so.

Instead, the suspects were able to cart away P38,704 worth of money taken from the employers’ locker and three units of phones, Police Corp. Ruben Ritana, investigator-on-case, said.

It was learned that of the money stashed away by the suspects, P20,000 belonged to store manager Irich Adlawan who saved the money for a birthday celebration for her child.

Ritana added that the crime was reported to the police on March 28 by the DES employee as they opened and noticed strewn office equipment and a damaged vault.

Police investigation revealed that the suspects entered the store through the roof and stayed inside for at least two hours.

Ritana said that they are ruling out the angle of an inside job as the suspects could have made some visits to the store prior they carried out their crime.

“Faces of the suspects were exposed in the footage but their wearing of bonnets made us difficult to get their identity for now”, the police officer said.

The police keep reviewing the recorded video to familiarize the physical and facial features of the two culprits while simultaneously conducting investigations.

The Commission on Elections (Comelec) together with the PNP and the Philippine Army have yet to release areas in the region where politically-re-

But during the 2019 midterm elections, around 70 areas, mostly in the provinces of Samar and Northern Samar were identified as areas of concern by the Comelec and the security offices in the region.

A likely resurgence

In some countries where the COVID-19 virus had been contained, new surges of infections are being experienced, particularly in China, Vietnam, Israel, the US, and many others. Our country in the past weeks has rather been seeing remarkable reductions in cases, but it's not surprising if said cases will again soar high in the coming weeks and months.

We can cite a lot of reasons for this likelihood. One is that the majority of Filipinos are no longer inclined to have booster shots. They seem to have been contented with the first two doses that were given them months ago. They do not realize that, based on the advice of health experts, those shots were only good for six months, after which they eventually expire and a vaccinated person is already at risk of serious virus infections without protection, hence the need for booster shots.

In some public places today, moreover, people are no longer wearing their masks, the basic health wearable to prevent the virus from spreading. We have gotten rid of face shields, but the wearing of face masks is still mandated until now, and that's when we are in populated areas such as the malls, terminals, passenger vehicles, wet markets, restaurants, business establishments, schools, churches, and many more. Removing this mask off our faces in places like these is actually inviting the virus once again.

The greatest factor for a likely resurgence of numerous virus cases is the election season that we are having right now. People's close interactions with one another are frequent in all of these political camps. Those who attend the rallies numbering by the thousands are physically close to one another, shoulder to shoulder, as they repeatedly shout to the top of their voices, thereby releasing gaseous particles of saliva into the air that others might inhale. It's in rallies like these that virus transmission could take place like wildfire.

We hope and pray that the coronavirus will finally leave us alone once and for all, otherwise, the incoming regime will just be greeted with another round of lockdowns and quarantines which paralyze human activities and government operations.

Treasure-hunting

The people comprising the Presidential Commission for Good Government (PCGG) that Cory Aquino had created after assuming power had for years been actively performing their mandate in running after the Marcos assets which they considered as ill-gotten. That's quite commendable of them to be that consistent in doing so.

In fact, in their hunger for wealth "retrieval", they must have been siphoning the Marcos wealth even if the latter's valuables were legally and legitimately acquired. To the eyes of PCCG agents, it had seemed as if the Marcoses owned nothing at all, and every little thing they had ought to be confiscated and sequestered because these were stolen from the people and it is just proper that these items are retaken from them.

This must have been quite difficult for them as they could not determine the legally-acquired from those that were "ill-gotten". To make the job easier, they concentrated on highly-valuable items, huge bank deposits, sprawling properties, and many other enormous riches. It must have been an exciting treasure-hunting on their part, harvesting everything to their hearts' content.

This upcoming national election, when the son of the man they accused of stealing is running for the highest office of the land, the PCGG agents are in a panic mood. They can't accept such a comeback of the Marcoses to power, hence they are doing everything they can to stop this Marcos heir from winning. So they created story after story, figures after figures, untold accusations and many other narratives to make the Marcoses appear more evil and despicable to people.

Others still believe their endless and recycled tales, the rest agitated, but this time, the majority of

A New Debate Suggestion: BBM VS LENI ONE-ON-ONE - Did'Ja Know

THAT we just copied this Presidential Debate from what has been practiced in the United States since 1858?

THAT in our efforts to answer the public's demand for more information about the Five (5) "leading presidential aspirants" then, we had our very first Presidential Debate before the National Elections in 2016?

THAT during several debates, the following presidential candidates were featured -- Vice-President Jejomar Binay, Senator Grace Poe, Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago, DILG Secretary Mar Roxas and Davao City Mayor Rodrigo Duterte?

THAT being the very first presidential debate, the debate rules were supposedly agreed upon, but were not strictly followed?

THAT it was during the question & answer portion that Mayor Rodrigo Duterte jokingly asked fellow presidential aspirant Mar Roxas if he (Roxas) was too nervous that he kept on going to the bathroom?

(Wish List for 2022) Strong Internet

In the December 2021 Business World Article cited the improvement of Internet Speed in the PHILIPPINE MOBILE internet speeds improved further in November, with its global ranking climbing four places to 90th out of 138 countries, latest data from Ookla showed. Its median download speed for mobile internet rose to 18.68 megabits per second (Mbps) from 18.21 Mbps in October.

The reliable website statista.com said that The average download speed of a fixed internet connection in the Philippines was 46.44 Mbps in November 2021. On the other hand, the average mobile internet connection speed was 18.68 Mbps. This was last year, the present Ookla Global Index for Mobile Internet put the Philippines at 94th . from <https://www.speedtest.net/global-index>, we saw how dismal it is. With Myanmar way above us at 68th, Vietnam was 50th in Speed and Brunei at 12th. United Arab Emirates top the list at 133.51 megabit per second. The Philippines was 93rd down the best at 18 mbps. The present Fixed Broadband was topped by Chile at 197.59 average mbps for broadband. Chile not an industrialized country, is a flash in the pan meaning its something that cannot be considered consistent. Philippines

THAT Manila Times Columnist former Ambassador Rigoberto Tig-lao, in his article dated 28 MAR 2022, considers our debate system featuring several presidential aspirants "ridiculous and absurd"?

THAT he considered the "Deep Probe" format as "sadistic" (to say the least about the organizers), for featuring several presidential aspirants, including some whom he considers "non-winnable"?

THAT aside from the well coordinated debate moderated by Atty. Karen Jimeno, Columnist Tig-lao admired the "patience" of the panelists, led by Professor Clarita Carlos, Manila Times' top honcho Dante Ang II, former Vice-Governor & Congressman Rolex Sulpico, and Ms. Sass Rogando Sasot, SMNI's foreign correspondent, who flew in from Europe mainly for the debate?

THAT what Tig-lao admired most was how, the said panelists were able to suppress their laughter ippines was at 68th at 49.10 mbps.

The rankings gathered by an unbiased and reliable speed test shows that indeed there is a lot to be done in this very important commodity, the mobile and fixed internet which powers our academic pursuit.

Looking at the series of debates, we see this problem as unaddressed, we hear obvious and shallow motherhood statements and a trickle of not so reliable nor specific words from others.

Imagine for a day, imagine that we will lost signal and more than the newsfeeds you have in your Facebook Page, the Transactions with bank its ATM machines, Bank and E Commerce Transactions stalled due to being offline or very slow network ? The reports from government agencies for regulatory agencies cannot be submitted. And most of all, communication lines are either so weak for a text or a call to get through.

The next Administration must consider internet as a basic need and that these issue must be part of the plans that we have.

Commentary

FR. ROY CIMAGALA

Christ, perfect God, perfect man

"AMEN, amen, I say to you, the Son cannot do anything on his own, but only what he sees the Father doing; for what he does, the Son will do also. For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything that he himself does, and he will show him greater works than these, so that you may be amazed." (Jn 5,19-20)

With these words, Christ is affirming that Christ is God just as the Father to whom he is referring in those words is God. We should have no doubt about the divinity of Christ, falling into some heresy that would consider Christ otherwise.

But not only is Christ God. He is also man who acts as a perfect mediator between God and man. He is the perfect bridge between God and man, because he is both God and man, "perfectus Deus, perfectus homo." This truth of our faith can somehow be gleaned from the following words of his:

"Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes in the one who sent me has eternal life and will not come to condemnation, but has passed from death to life." (Jn 5,23-24)

All these truths of our faith simply tell us that we are truly children of God, made in his image and likeness, meant to share his very own life. In short, how God is should also be how we ought to be. It's a most basic truth about ourselves that we should never forget or take for granted. On that truth depend all the other things in our life.

The necessary corollary to this truth is that we should try our best, with God's grace, of course, to be like Christ who offers us precisely to be "the truth, the way and the life." The way to be like God is to identify ourselves as perfectly as possible with

Swiss Medical Scientists Develop 'Patch' Vaccine

Dubbed as 'next generation' COVID - 19 vaccine candidate has been developed and being tested in Switzerland, the new technology is called "patch" vaccine, as an alternative method of inoculation.

Swiss medical researchers name the product as PepGNP-COVID -19 vaccine candidate "focuses on T-cells, which are responsible for cellular immunity to eliminate cells infected by the virus and prevent it from replicating." Prof. Blaise Genton, head of study said "this cellular immunity generates co-called "memory cells", which could make the vaccine more durable and could be better than others at protecting against potential variants of the virus."

"The possible vaccine will be administered via micro-needles in the patch that are less than one millimeter deep that they hope will provide long immunity from COVID-19 and do away with the need for seasonal booster shots".

Technically, it was the Emergex Vaccines Holding Ltd., a British company that developed the new vaccine and trial was conducted in Lausanne, Switzerland's Unisante' medical research center researchers.

The Swiss researchers contributions to formulating new drugs against COVID-19, and hopefully, its variants, would mean mankind's march toward eradicating the variants, including Omicron, and inching closer to endemism of COVID-19 instigated diseases globally.

DPWH Eastern Samar starts the construction of another standard DPWH building

BORONGAN CITY-The Department of Public Works and Highways – Eastern Samar District Engineering Office has started the construction of another DPWH building inside the Eastern Samar DEO compound located in Brgy. Alang-alang, this city.

The construction of the new DPWH building is funded under GAA 2022 with a project cost amounting to P19,383,525.01. Its construction started on February 13, 2022 and is expected to be completed on November 14, 2022.

The new DPWH building is a standard DPWH two-storey building and will be the new office building of the Maintenance Section and Quality Assurance Section.

According to ESDEO District Engineer Ma. Margarita C. Junia, the construction of the new DPWH building will be an additional boost to the morale of the employees.

"This new building will be an additional inspiration to the employees to work harder and be more productive in doing their jobs because of their new spacious and upgraded office building," DE Junia said.

The new structure is designed to be typhoon and earthquake-resilient. The completion of the new office building will enhance the work environment of DPWH Eastern Samar as well as its services to the public.

Family shares harrowing tales as NPAs

MAASIN CITY-An entire family joined the underground movement of the New People's Army (NPA) lured by the promise that one of the daughters will be sent to school to become a teacher, but it was a painful experience all the way, not a shadow of any school.

Worse, one of the two was raped, left alone while having the child in her womb, and with the help of her sister managed to give birth properly in a hospital, yet went back to the mountains on the constant prodding of their fellows.

Luckily, through the convergent efforts of the Regional Task Force to End Local Communist Armed Conflict (RTF-ELCAC), the mother and two daughters were able to get back to the folds of the law, sharing their sad tales during the zoom webinar organized by the 802nd Infantry Brigade, Philippine Army, on Tuesday, March 29.

But the father and two brothers are still out there, at large, even as continuing efforts are underway to get them back, to complete a family destroyed by the senseless claws of the insurgents.

"We are always on the run, day and night, we sleep on hammocks, and what little food we had is shared," Ruffa recalled.

Her sister, Realyn, was in tears as she recounted what had happened to her, crying heavily as she narrated those moments when her person was violated against her will by their commander at a tender age of 14.

Their message was clear and simple, but deep: Never be deceived by the NPAs' recruitment talks, and their testimony was convincing proof, indeed, of a harsh underground life.

The online webinar on the atrocities of the NPA coincided with the 53rd anniversary of the outlawed organization.

Capt. Kaharudin Cadil, civil military operations officer of the 802nd Brigade, disclosed that various cases were already filed in court against those responsible in perpetrating the crimes committed, such as recruitment of minors and murder, among others.

He said there was already a standing warrant of arrest against Paterno Opo, suspect in the rape case against Realyn.

PCEO Regino welcomes ARTA commendation on improved SSS services

Social Security System (SSS) President and CEO Michael G. Regino welcomes the commendation of the Anti-Red Tape Authority (ARTA) for the SSS' execution of several streamlining measures to address the long lines forming outside its offices.

"We thank the ARTA led by Secretary Jeremiah B. Belgica for their commendation on the improvement of the delivery of our services. This gives us further inspiration and motivation to continuously enhance our processes and provide better services for our stakeholders," Regino said.

"We also appreciate their recommendations that helped us formulate immediate measures to address the surge of transacting members in our National Capital Region (NCR) branches since the declaration of Alert Level 1 in Metro Manila and other areas," he added.

Recently, SSS implemented the extension of its daily working hours in all NCR branches from March 11 to 31, 2022, to 6:00 AM to 6:00 PM from the usual 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Selected branches receiving high volume of transactions were also opened every Saturday this March from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM to accept regular transactions except teller services. Moreover, SSS also deployed additional personnel in these branches and applied modified branch servicing guidelines to accommodate its transacting members.

"We are continuously monitoring the volume of transactions that we receive in our branches, especially in the NCR and neighboring provinces, so that we can employ further measures to address them," Regino said.

"Apart from the stop-gap measures we have implemented, we are also exerting efforts towards long-term solutions such as the continuous digitalization of our services. We recognize the important role of this initiative in providing easier and more convenient modes of transaction for our stakeholders, which can also eliminate the overcrowding and long queues in our branches," he added.

Currently, the SSS has 36 member and 21 employer services available online through the My.SSS Portal (www.sss.gov.ph). These cover transactions for membership, contributions, loan repayments, benefits, loans granting, disbursements, and others. Some of the services available in the said portal may also be accessed through other online channels such as the SSS Mobile App, Text-SSS, and Self-service Express Terminals.

"We would like to invite our members, employers, pensioners, and the general public to familiarize themselves with our online services, accessible 24/7 at the convenience and safety of their homes or offices using their computers or smartphones. Information materials about these are available in our official social media pages and the uSSSap Tayo Portal (<https://crms.sss.gov.ph>)," Regino concluded. (PR)

Cabayongan Bridge now under repair by the DPWH

TACLOBAN CITY-The Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH) – Leyte Second District Engineering Office (L2DEO) set aside P9.55 million for the restoration of the Cabayongan Bridge in Jaro town.

The project's main goal is to make the bridge structures more adaptable to shifting climates and adverse weather events, especially as the surge of the Cabayongan River crisscrosses the bridge, District Engineer Leo Edward Oppura said.

The Cabayongan Bridge, which connects the towns of Dagami and Pastrana, is considered a prominent bridge located near Jaro's public market.

Installation of carbon fiber sheets and plates started on March 21 of this year and will be completed on June, also this year with a 52% reported work accomplishment.

In addition, application of 1,107.94-square meters of bituminous and emulsified asphalt with reflectorized thermoplastic pavement markings will be applied to the bridge road surface.

Overall, DPWH-L2DEO maintains 55 bridges along the national and secondary roads of the second district of Leyte.

Treasure...

Filipinos do not listen to their stories anymore that are meant to continually harm and ruin the Marcos reputation. People find it inconsistent, and hard to reconcile, because while the Marcos enemies are trash-talking against him with fury and indignation, his legacies as the greatest president this country has ever had continue to benefit millions of Filipinos until today.

So why are the PCGG people frantic in blocking BBM’s likely victory and eventual regime? Is it really because they cannot anymore run after the “stolen” wealth of the Marcoses, or they have anomalies to cover up? At the moment, in fact, they are no longer as eager as they were before in “retrieving” those missing assets. What scares them the most is, if BBM will run after them and demand where those sequestered assets are. Because from the looks of it, many if not all of these assets that used to be in PCGG’s possession are already gone. Where are they now?

PCGG, as the custodian, must be held responsible for these losses. They should come out clean, otherwise, they would emerge as nothing but robbers and thieves, who

Sen. Lacson most qualified among presidential aspirants as Eleazar dismisses calls for him to withdraw from the race

TACLOBAN CITY- Amid calls for him to withdraw from the presidential race, Senator Panfilo ‘Ping’ Lacson will never quit the race.

Instead, Lacson insisted that among the presidential aspirants, he is the most qualified to become the next occupant of Malacanang Palace.

And this move of Lacson, a one-time director general of the Philippine National Police, was supported by retired police general Guillermo Eleazar who is running as a senator.

“Ako’y naniniwala bilang isang sundalo, bilang isang pulis, na may paninindigan si (Sen. Lacson) at talagang kaniyang ipaglalaman ang kaniyang karapatan and paniniwala at hinahanganan natin siya (dito),” he divided among themselves what they had gotten from the Marcoses. They had stripped the Marcoses of their wealth only to steal the same in broad daylight. Of course this has yet to be proven in court, but the fact that it was the PCGG that had access and control of the sequestered assets, any losses therein must be demanded from this agency and the people who run it.

ly & voters will be much more informed of what kind of people the candidates are?

THAT a really informative presidential debate should not have several candidates, because it is not a wrestling match nor “cock-fighting derby.”

THAT only through a one-on-one debate will we really know the qualifications of a president debate -- just like what they have in the United States.

THAT Columnist Tiglao further suggests that “only Two (2) candidates could pass a 15% threshold -- former senator Ferdinand Bongbong Marcos (60% in Pulse Asia in Feb. 18-23 poll & 60% in the Laylo Report), and Robredo 60% & 17%.

THAT the next president can only be either Marcos or Robredo. and Columnist Tiglao openly says - “C’mon guys, don’t we want a one-on-one said during an interview Friday(April 1) during his sortie here in Tacloban City and other parts of Leyte.

Lacson said that he has been in public service for almost 51 years now and he is ready and willing again to offer and sacrifice his life for the Filipinos reason quitting the presidential race has never crossed on his mind.

During the first presidential debates earlier held he made a clear message that he is the only one with the ability, experience, and qualifications to lead the Philippines that is now facing a mountainous problem.

“What we face today is no joke: the impact of the pandemic on the economy, the high price of oil as a result of the conflict in Ukraine, and our national debt of over P12 trillion. And there are still other headaches like corruption, insurgency, and China’s bullying of us in the West Philippine Sea,” he said.

debate between Marcos and Robredo?

An hour of such debate will give us real insights into who should be our next president.

-THIS COLUMNIST (Mr. Q’s) RESEARCH- Debates test one thing: the ability to quickly respond to complex questions that are relatively impossible to answer in the time available.

They put a premium on being fast & clever but don’t say much about how smart a candidate is. Nor are they meant to, in part because being smart, in an academic sense, is not essential to be president -- as many have demonstrated.

At their best, debates test a candidate’s coolness under pressure and ability to articulate some thought at least vaguely connected to the question while convincing the viewers that he or she is both personable and serious.

Christ...

Christ. We have to try our best to assume the very identity of Christ.

There’s no doubt about it. We are meant to assume the identity of Christ, because he is the pattern of our humanity and the savior of our damaged humanity. We can only be as we ought to be when we assume Christ’s identity. That is to say, when Christ and us become one.

A fantasy? A gratuitous exaggeration? Would we not fall into some grave presumption here or some psychological disorder? Such reactions, of course, are understandable. As they say, we are only human (sapagkat kami’y tao lamang), and so we can never aspire to be like Christ, much less, to be Christ himself.

But Christ himself said so in so many words. “He who hears you hears me,” he said, “and he who rejects you rejects me, and he who reject me rejects him who sent me.” (Lk 10,16) Though spoken directly to his apostles, such words can also be addressed to all of us.

More than that, his ardent prayer before he entered into his passion and death was that we be one with him and he is one with his Father. “...that all of them may be one, as you, Father, are in me, and I am in you. May they also be in us...that they may be one as we are one, I in them and you in me, so that they may be brought to complete unity...” (Jn 17,21.23) will ensure that the May 9 balloting will be fair and transparent.

We need to process this tremendous truth of our faith slowly.

“Our chairman (Said-amin Pangarungan) promised that we will ensure full and complete transparency (in the conduct of the) elections,” he said.

Both PNP Chief Di-onardo Carlos and AFP Chief of Staff Andres Centino also guaranteed that aside from clean elections, the conduct of balloting in Samar province will be peaceful and orderly.

Carlos, who once served as Eastern Visayas police director, hailed the signing of the agreement.

“We ask the voting public, the candidates and other stakeholders to be with us to ensure that the conduct of the elections will be peaceful and orderly,” he said.

Centino, meantime, said that he has directed all ground commanders to organize units that will be ready to address any possible election-related incidents, adding that he has received a directive from President Rodrigo Duterte to ensure that the May 9 elections not only in Samar but in the rest of the country will be safe, orderly and peaceful.

Samar has been tagged in previous elections to be a concern or hot spot area due to killing incidents said to be perpetrated by either private armed groups or by members of the New People’s Army.

National Security Adviser and vice chairman of the National Task Force to End Local Armed Conflict (NTF- ELAC) Sec. Hermogenes Esperon, Jr. also attended the signing of the peace agreement.

Also present were Major Gen.Edgardo De Leon, the commanding officer of the 8th ID; Comelec Regional Director Noli Pipo; and Bishop Isabelo Abarquez of the Diocese of Calbayog, among others.

Due to poor survey results, Eleazar to work hard as he aim to get elected as a senator

TACLOBAN CITY- Former Philippine National Police (PNP) chief Guillermo Eleazar admitted that he needs to work hard to let people know that he is running for Senate in this year’s elections.

Eleazar, who visited Leyte on Friday (April 1), said that he will double his campaign efforts to ensure that the Filipino voters would be aware that he is running for a Senate seat.

“This is the reason why I am here in Leyte to thank my supporters as well as to make them known that I am running for the Senate,” he said in an interview.

The former PNP chief is not doing well based on various surveys conducted related to the May 9 elections.

Eleazar is running under the Partido Reporma although the party recently withdrew its support to his presidential candidate, Panfilo ‘Ping’ Lacson.

But the former PNP chief said that he will stick

During the onslaught of Super Typhoon Yolanda, Sen. Lacson also served as a presidential assistant on rehabilitation and recovery.

“It takes a leader who is competent, qualified, and experienced, to turn the prommualdez, Leyte Governor Leopoldo Dominico Petilla and former energy secretary Jericho Petilla, who is running for governor of the province.

Senate bets admit poll victories depend on the popularity of Robredo

TACLOBAN CITY – Senatorial aspirants under the slate of Vice President Leni Robredo hope that they could win with the support of their young supporters. Former Ifugao Representative Teddy Baquilat Jr. said that joining the campaign sorties of Vice President lesser known candidates like him gets recognition from the voters, particularly the younger voters who are the core of Robredo's presidential race.

"I'm not saying that Leni will make us win, pero yung kanyang solid core which is the young, which is the idealistic people, hopefully makuha naming yung base na yun," Baquilat said.

The senatorial aspirant noted that in their sorties in the region, majority of those who attended their rallies were youths.

For his part, lawyer Sonny Matula agrees with Baquilat adding that any increase in survey ratings of Robredo will help improve their own ratings.

"Ang aming focus ngayon ay si Vice President Leni na tumaas ang kanyang rating, and palagay ko tataas na after the big rallies," Matula said.

Aside from popularity, another factor why some candidates are more known to voters is they have more funds to finance their campaign, he added.

Various surveys have indicated that both Baquilat and Matula are not in the winning circle or at least has a striking chance to win Senate seats.

Based on the Pulse Asia survey from Feb 18 to 23 released in the middle of this month, the probable winners include Raffy Tulfo, Loren Legarda, Mark Villar, Alan Peter Cayetano, Miguel Zubiri, Chiz Escudero, Robin Padilla, Jojo Binay, Sherwin Gatchalian, Joel Villanueva, Jinggoy Estrada, Herbert Bautista, Risa Hostiveros, and JV Ejercito.

PNP welcomes arrest of 2 Leyte drug personalities

TACLOBAN CITY – The Philippine National Police (PNP) has welcomed the arrest of two high-value targets in a recent drug buy-bust operation in Alangalang, Leyte.

PNP Eastern Visayas Regional Director, Brig. Gen. Bernard Banac, said on Friday the arrest of Ronald Pulminar and Francis Paul Miralles on March 29 is a that the police force is serious about stopping the illegal drugs trade in the region.

Pulminar, 35, a watch-listed drug personality is a resident of Salvacion village in Alangalang while Miralles, 33, is a resident of Dapdap village in the same town.

"The successful accomplishment of our men on the ground bespeaks of our commitment to make Eastern Visayas drug and crime-free," Banac said in a statement.

The operating teams were joint elements from the regional police drug enforcement unit, Leyte police provincial drug enforcement unit, and Alangalang municipal police station.

Confiscated from the suspects' possession were eight sachets containing suspected shabu, a PHP500 bill used as marked money, nine pieces of PHP500 used as bogus money, two pocket scales, two identification cards, a cigarette pack, a lighter, and one empty plastic sachet.

The estimated weight of seized drug items was 22.20 grams with an estimated value of P143,000.

Suspects will face cases for violation of the Comprehensive Dangerous Drugs Act of 2002, according to PNP.

Pieces of evidence confiscated will be forwarded to PNP regional crime laboratory for examination.

Earlier, the Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency said that some 88 villages in the seven towns in Leyte province are eyed to be declared drug-cleared before the end of President Rodrigo Duterte's term.

Drug-cleared villages are still being monitored to prevent a recurrence.

Leyte has 1,393 villages in 40 towns and one city.

Of the total number of villages, 938 are already drug-cleared. (SARWELL Q. MENIANO/PNA)

Meteostation put up at the DZR Airport to monitor Tacloban weather condition

TACLOBAN CITY – The Philippine Nuclear Research Institute (PNRI) turned over the Sansinirangan meteostation or weather station to the Philippine Science High School – Eastern Visayas campus.

The weather station is located inside the compound of the Philippine Atmospheric, Geophysical, and Astronomical Services Administration (Pagasa) at the Daniel Z. Romualdez Airport, this city.

Information provided from the meteostation is localized which local government units and agencies used in giving alerts to the public.

The meteostation measures rain amount, wind speed and pressure, wind direction, global radiation, and a CCTV camera that allows the rest of the country to see Tacloban's Pagasa area anytime.

The Sansinirangan sends real-time information to people's mobile phones via a cloud application. It has solar panels and backup batteries to keep it running in case there is a power outage caused by a calamity.

In case of a strong typhoon, the Sansinirangan can send a last image before it will be destroyed by the typhoon and shall serve like a Black-box" of an airplane—it will be able to send a glimpse of the afected area to the world via Cloud and at least inform the world of what has happened to Tacloban.

Raymund Sugang, PNRI supervising science research specialist, said that the meteostation is a product of the study conducted on the natural attenuation study in Tacloban City.

"We wanted to learn if the groundwater in areas affected by floods after typhoon Yolanda were contaminated after the storm surge, and if the water is still safe as far as the Philippine National Standard for Drinking Water is concerned," Sugang said.

The PNRI has allocated over P2 million to fund the establishment of the Sansinirangan meteostation. (ROEL T. AMAZONA)

Mayors ask constituents to show respect choice of candidates; plead not to commit low blow acts

TACLOBAN CITY – Don't take politics too seriously.

This was the separate advice of Maasin City Mayor Naccional Mercado and Abuyog Mayor Lemuel Gin Traya as they noted that supporters of some candidates, especially those seeking the presidency, are trying to destroy against each other.

Mayor Mercado in particular was reacting to a supporter of a particular presidential candidate holding a Manila paper with the words 'Leni for Tanod' written on it.

The mayor said that the act of the said man was uncalled for.

"Please let us show respect to each other's choices regardless of whom we support to lead our country," Mercado said.

"With this, I would like to send a strong warning to everyone not to disrespect any candidate or visitors that will visit Maasin City," he added.

Robredo, who is running for President, held a political rally in Maasin last week.

For his part, Mayor Traya also asked his constituents to respect others' choices.

A tarpaulin of Robredo and her running mate Sen. Francis Pangilinan was destroyed by an unknown individual.

"I strongly condemn this shenanigan. Let us all be fair," Mayor Traya said in his post on his official Facebook account.

Traya said that they had received several reports and complaints of malicious defacing of candidates' campaign materials in their town.

"Time and again, we need to remember that this act is prohibited by law. No one is excused from vandalism," Traya said.

"Let us all be guided by a righteous and clean campaign. Respect each other's right to freedom of expression," he added.

Both Mercado and Traya are known to support the presidential bid of former senator, Ferdinand 'Bongbong' Marcos and his running-mate Davao City Mayor Sara Duterte. (ROEL T. AMAZONA) settlers to return to their home provinces and assist them in the transition through transportation, family, livelihood, housing, subsistence, and education support, among others.

Gemma Jarogon, Catarman area coordinator of DSWD-8, their office will be offering two kinds of assistance to the beneficiaries, the transitory family assistance and livelihood support grant to help them start their lives back in their home province.

Vinagrancia Batiles of the PSWDO said that the provincial government will also be providing assistance to beneficiaries through the social amelioration program.

The program is for families who decide to go back to their hometowns for good and start a new life. (EUGENE M. ENANO)

Asked faithful to 'rush back' to Jesus as Church masses now allowed 2 years after COVID-19 pandemic restriction

Papal nuncio graces the 501st First Mass celebration

TACLOBAN CITY- The representative of Pope Francis to the Philippines, Archbishop Charles John Brown, led in the celebration of the 501st year anniversary of the First Sunday Mass on Limasawa Island, Southern Leyte Thursday (March 31).

In his homily, the papal nuncio said that he was glad to visit Limasawa for this year's celebration after failing to officiate the event last year, coinciding with the Quincentennial celebration of the First Mass in the Philippines.

Archbishop Brown was not able to visit Limasawa last year because of the travel restrictions imposed due to the pandemic caused by coronavirus disease (COVID-19).

"It's a great joy and immense privilege for me as a representative of Pope Francis to be with all of you here on the island of Limasawa to commemorate the 501st celebration of the First Mass on the Filipino soil, March 31st, 5121," he said during the celebration held at the Magallanes Shrine.

The papal nuncio, Archbishop Charles Brown, presided the 501st First Mass celebration on Thursday(March 28)on Limasawa Island, Southern Leyte. The archbishop asks the faithful that with Church masses now allowed, to 'rush to Jesus Christ, who loves us'. (PIA-Maasin)

Among those present were priests within the Diocese of Maasin headed by Bishop Precioso Cantillas; local officials led by Governor Damian Mercado and municipal mayor Melchor Petracorta and Public Works Sec.Roger Mercado, former congressman of the province.

Archbishop Brown noted that with the cases of COVID-19 in the country now appear to be declining, regular masses and not just live stream masses could now be conducted.

The papal nuncio said that the pandemic has resulted in what he described as 'Eucharistic fasting' among the faithful as they could not attend Church masses except those conducted virtually due to restrictions.

"But seating in your homes watching mass on your cellphone or on your laptop is not the same(as attending mass in the church) because you are not able to receive the Bread of Life," the papal nuncio said.

"So after two years of this kind of Eucharistic fasting...rush back to masses; rush back to the source of supernatural light; rush back to our Savior Jesus Christ who loves us," he said.

The papal nuncio said that the faithful need to receive the Eucharist 'to stay alive supernaturally.'

"The Eucharist is a form of life that Jesus gives us that will help us go from natural death to eternal life. The power of the Eucharist will make our bodies live again. This is the message of Christianity," he said.

Archbishop Brown also said that he was elated that during his visit, it coincided with the ordination of 12 new priests to the Diocese of Maasin.

The visit of Archbishop Brown to Limasawa came after the historic island was pummeled by Typhoon Odette December of last year.

Limasawa was one of the hard-hit areas in the province due to the typhoon with practically all of its more than 6,100 residents were affected and rendered homeless.

At present, of its six barangays, two of them, San Agustin and San Bernardo, remain without power connections. (JOEY A. GABIETA)
